SUBJECT: Winter Update

Season's Greetings from Indian Hills! The early wintery weather has certainly forced us into thinking more seriously about the Christmas holidays, and Indian Hills has several enjoyable events available:

- Friday - Saturday, December 5 - 7 at 7:30 p.m.
 - Indian Hills Fall Play: "A Tuna Christmas," in St. John Auditorium
 - No Admission Charged

- Thursday, December 11 – three related events
 - 4 p.m. - Indian Hills Trailblazers Winter Meeting, Administrative Conference Room – See the agenda on the back of this sheet
 - 5 to 7:15 p.m. - Indian Hills Holiday Party, IHCC Dining Hall - The Culinary staff have planned an elegant party with a variety of special "sweets for the holidays."
 - 7:30 p.m. - Indian Hills Holiday Concert, St. John Auditorium - The concert features the college ensembles including the staff chorus; all will be performing the sounds of the season.

At the Trailblazer meeting, we're planning to discuss some new ideas for social activities, and we would definitely enjoy your input. The communications committee has several ideas to share. We'll also have updates related to the cookie deliveries to the departments and the Warrior Christmas for disadvantaged children. In addition, this year's recipients of the two Trailblazer scholarships are planning to attend.

Please plan to join us if you're available! You may call or email any suggestions to me at 641-683-5115 or at rhonda.conrad@indianhills.edu, and I'll share with the group.

Merry Christmas & Happy New Year!
