What is Entrance Counseling?

If you have not previously received a Direct Loan or Federal Family Education Loan (FFEL), the Federal Government requires you to complete entrance counseling to ensure that you understand the responsibilities and obligations you are assuming. Entrance Counseling is required before you can receive your first Direct Subsidized Loan, or Direct Unsubsidized Loan as an undergraduate, or your first Direct PLUS Loan as a graduate/professional student.

Who has to Complete Entrance Counseling?

The federal government mandates that first-time borrowers receive entrance counseling before their loans can be disbursed. You need to complete this counseling only once while attending IHCC. All students taking out Direct Subsidized Loans or Direct Unsubsidized Loans: If you have not previously received a subsidized or unsubsidized loan under the Direct Loan Program or a subsidized or unsubsidized Stafford Loan under the Federal Family Education Loan (FFEL) Program, you'll be required to complete entrance counseling.

What is a Subsidized/Unsubsidized MPN?

The Master Promissory Note (MPN) is a legal document in which you promise to repay your loan(s) and any accrued interest and fees to the U.S. Department of Education. It also explains the terms and conditions of your loan(s). If you are taking out a Direct Loan, you must sign an MPN under any of the following circumstances:

- You have never previously signed an MPN for the type of loan you are taking out.
- You signed an MPN more than one year ago, but no loan was disbursed.
- You signed an MPN more than 10 years ago.

What is Exit Counseling?

Exit counseling provides important information to prepare you to repay your federal student loan(s). Exit Counseling is required when you graduate, leave school, or drop below half-time enrollment. Exit Counseling provides important information to prepare you to repay your federal student loan(s). To complete Exit Counseling go to www.studentloans.gov

TIME LIMITATION ON DIRECT SUBSIDIZED LOAN ELIGIBILITY FOR FIRST-TIME BORROWERS ON OR AFTER JULY 1, 2013

If you are a first-time borrower on or after July 1, 2013, there is a limit on the maximum period of time (measured in academic years) for which you can receive Direct Subsidized Loans. In general, you may not receive Direct Subsidized Loans for more than 150% of the published length of your program of study. This is called your “maximum eligibility period.”

After you have received Direct Subsidized Loans for your maximum eligibility period, you are no longer eligible to receive additional Direct Subsidized Loans. You may continue to receive Direct Unsubsidized Loans. In addition, you will become responsible for paying the interest that accrues on your Direct Subsidized Loans during all periods if you: continue to be enrolled in any undergraduate program after you have received Direct Subsidized Loans for your maximum eligibility period, or enroll in another undergraduate program that is the same length as or shorter than your previous program. Your federal Loan Servicer will notify you if you become responsible for paying all of the interest that accrues on your Direct Subsidized Loans.
