Purpose

The purpose of the quality faculty plan has been to create and maintain a highly-qualified, highly-skilled, student-centered faculty.

Indian Hills Community College maintains the following core beliefs regarding faculty development:

- IHCC is a community of learners.
- Each faculty member is ultimately responsible for his or her own growth.
- Faculty development
  - enhances the learning process for students and faculty.
  - is a continuing process.
• is a community process.
• is a process that is dynamic and flexible.
• leads to innovation and motivation.
• includes a variety of indicators.

Quality Faculty Plan Committee

The Quality Faculty Plan Committee consists of equal representation of arts/sciences and career and technical education faculty. Faculty members on the Quality Faculty Plan Committee are appointed to a three-year term and may be re-appointed to a second three-year term. Staff and administration on the committee represent each academic division, the Centerville campus, distance education, and human resources. These members serve a continuous term. Current, Quality Faculty Plan Committee Members include:

Professional Development Requirements for Full-Time Faculty

Faculty (who are under contract for at least half-time or more, including counselors and media specialists) who are new to the teaching profession and/or new to IHCC will participate in needed training depending on their previous experience. Failure to comply may result in corrective action up to and including termination of employment.

Level 1 New Faculty Orientation

Full-time faculty who are new to the teaching profession and those who are new to IHCC are required to participate in orientation and learning activities that address the following topics related to the IHCC Quality Faculty Competencies. Orientation to Indian Hills Community College will be handled by the Human Resources Office and the appropriate Academic Dean.

The Indian Hills Community College Human Resources Office orientation activities include:

- IHCC’s organizational governance and structure.
- Mandatory Reporter Training
- Review of the staff handbook policies and procedures
- IHCC customer service expectation

The Indian Hills Community College Academic Deans will provide additional orientation to new faculty that includes:

- IHCC Teaching Technologies (Web Advisor, My Hills, CurricuNet, Smarthinking, Collaborate, Turn-it-in.com, etc.)
- Nature of community college students.
- Overview of the community college system and the Iowa Community College system.
- IHCC curriculum development and revision processes.
- IHCC faculty-related procedures.

Level 2 New Faculty Orientation

Full-time faculty (who are under contract for at least half-time or more, including counselors and media specialists) who are new to the teaching profession are required to participate in learning activities that address the following topics related to the IHCC Quality Faculty Competencies. Learning activities may include university courses, local courses, workshops, consortium courses, or Internet courses.

- Teaching-learning processes and methods of college teaching (including adult learning)
- Curriculum design
- Designing and implementing assessment and evaluation of student academic achievement
- Additional faculty development opportunities such as webinars, conferences, etc. are strongly encouraged of all new faculty members

Note: Iowa Communications Network (ICN) Training is required for all ICN instructors prior to teaching an ICN class.

Timeline

Level two new faculty orientation will be completed within the first three years of employment.

New faculty members who meet the required course learning activities listed in Level 2 New Faculty Orientation through previous coursework will enter their first cycle of Continuing Professional Development immediately. The requirements for Continuing Professional Development are listed in the next section of the Quality Faculty Plan. Faculty members completing Level 2 New Faculty Orientation prior to year three will begin the first cycle of Continuing Professional Development during year four of employment. Questions related to the completion of Level 1 or Level 2 Orientation can be directed to the faculty member’s academic dean, the director of human resources, or the chief academic officer.

Continuing Professional Development

Faculty who have completed their New Faculty Orientation phase at IHCC will be required to engage in learning activities that provide continuing professional development. These learning activities are designed to help faculty strengthen the IHCC Quality Faculty Competencies.

- A total of 45 contact (clock) hours of continuing development activities are required of all full-time faculty every 3 years. A proportionate amount of hours of continuing development activities are required of those faculty employed for half-time or more.
- Faculty are encouraged to participate in some learning activities each year, but no yearly minimum is required.
- Faculty must prove participation by the date designated as their renewal date.
- Two categories (which align with the IHCC Quality Faculty Competencies) have been designated for continuing faculty development.
- Failure to comply with requirements of the Quality Faculty Plan may result in corrective action up to and including termination of employment.
- Mandatory Reporter Certification is required for every faculty member within six months of hire and renewed every five years. Proof of certification must be on file in the Human Resources office.

Faculty Development Approval Process

Faculty members receive renewal hours for Continuing Professional Development by following the QFP procedure:

- Obtain a Professional Development Authorization form (from department office or the Human Resources online forms location). Authorization should be obtained prior to activity in order to avoid possible denial.
- Provide copy of brochure, program, etc. of activity if available.
- Provide proof of sponsoring agency/business/institution.
- Provide proof of contact hours after finishing the activity.
- Provide proof of successful completion of activity (certificate, transcript, grade slip, etc.).

Faculty Development Appeal Process

If an activity is not approved for QFP hours, the following is the process for appeal:

- Review the activity approval process. Determine if QFP approval process was followed and all documentation was submitted.
- If the approval process was met and the activity was denied based on merit by a dean and/or the Chief Academic Officer, then
  - Discuss with the dean the reasons for the denial.
  - Discuss with the dean and the Chief Academic Officer the reasons for the denial.
  - If you believe the activity has merit toward your QFP, then you may request a meeting with the Quality Faculty Plan Appeals sub-committee to discuss the activity’s merit. Make this request to the Dean of Human Resources.

Procedures for Record Keeping

- IHCC Human Resources office will maintain the official records of learning experiences and hours for each faculty member.
- IHCC Human Resources will notify each faculty member and the division dean once a year as to the faculty member’s progress toward achieving and maintaining competencies.
- The dean to whom the faculty member reports and the Chief Academic Officer must approve learning experiences to count for Quality Faculty Plan hours.
