1. Describe appropriate pain management strategies for both mild-moderate and moderate-severe pain.
2. Define the physiological response, side effects, and teaching for NSAID use.
3. Describe the difference in action between first generation and second generation NSAIDs.
4. Define side effects and contraindications for aspirin therapy; then discuss what a nurse should teach a client receiving aspirin therapy.
5. Describe the therapeutic affect to clients using Tylenol.
6. Describe risks associated with Tylenol use.
7. State the therapeutic range for Tylenol and the maximum recommended daily dosage.
8. Define side effects and important nursing observations for opioid administration.
9. Define the reversal medication appropriate for opioid overdose or over-sedation.
10. Discuss symptoms of opioid withdrawal.
11. Define the medication utilized in patients with opioid addiction and discuss benefits of using this medication.
12. Define Gout.
13. Define the medications used in the treatment of gout; then define the action of these medications.
14. Discuss side effects associated with the use of colchicine and allopurinol.
15. Discuss general teaching points a nurse provides to clients taking colchicine and allopurinol.