

ACCREDITED METALWORKING TRAINING PROGRAM

The National Institute for Metalworking Skills, Inc.® certifies that the Machine Technology Program

at

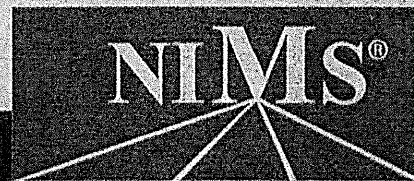

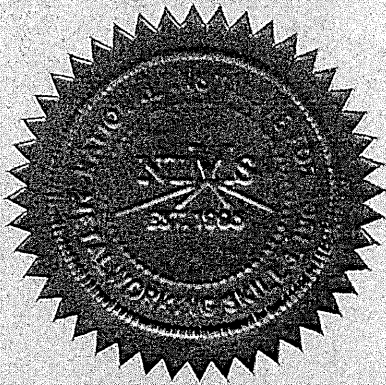

Indian Hills Community College

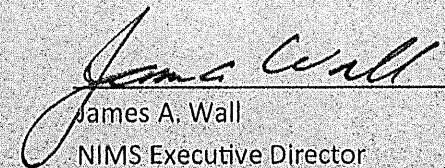

of Ottumwa, Iowa

has successfully met the quality requirements as set forth by NIMS industry standards for metalworking training and is hereby recognized as an accredited training program in the skills area(s) of:

Machining Level I

Valid November 12, 2014 through November 12, 2019

James A. Wall
NIMS Executive Director