Dr. Marlene Sprouse

Indian Hills Community College 4th President

Dr. Marlene Sprouse is retiring as the fourth president of Indian Hills Community College on October 8, 2020. A lifelong educator, Dr. Sprouse served the K-12 system for the first half of her career as an English teacher, curriculum director and high school principal before joining the Indian Hills staff in 2000. During her time with the college, Dr. Sprouse served as Dean of the Centerville Campus, Vice President of Academic Affairs and has led the college as President for the past seven years. After spending her entire career in the Indian Hills ten-county area, Dr. Sprouse is most proud of the life-changing impact that Indian Hills has had on southern Iowans through education, workforce training and economic development.

Dr. Matthew Thompson

Indian Hills Community College 5th President

Indian Hills welcomes Dr. Matt Thompson as the fifth president of Indian Hills Community College. Dr. Matt Thompson began his tenure at Indian Hills Community College in 2013 as the Vice President of Academic Affairs and Institutional Effectiveness. While at Indian Hills, Dr. Thompson has been integral in the development of the Pathway Navigators Program, securing reaccreditation by the Higher Learning Commission, and increasing the college's student retention and completion rates. Dr. Thompson looks forward to carrying on the Indian Hills mission of changing the lives of southern Iowans through learning, diversity, social enrichment and regional economic advancement.
