

Physical Ability Requirements

Radiologic Technology Program

INDIANHILLS
COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Life. Changing.

Physical Requirements:

- Regular standing while performing/observing exams
- Occasional crouching while positioning/stocking/lifting
- Regular walking during a routine day
- Occasional ascending/descending stairs
- Regular pushing while transporting patients/equipment/supplies
- Regular pulling during patient transfer/moving equipment/supplies
- Regular lifting during patient transfer/moving equipment/supplies
- Regular reaching while positioning/moving equipment/supplies
- Regular repetitive motions during positioning/data entry
- Regular use of vision while reading charts/requisitions/assessing patients
- Regular use of hearing while obtaining information
- Regular use of verbal communication with patients, families, physicians

Intellectual/Emotional Requirements:

- Assess radiographs for proper centering, positioning, technique, protection, misc.
- Follow hospital, department, and program policies/procedures
- Recognize emergency patient conditions/initiate emergency treatment based on level of education
- Adapt/improvise routine protocols as necessary based on level of education
- Maintain professionalism despite the stress of a hospital environment
- Maintain patient confidentiality and HIPPA
- Demonstrate patient concern and attend to their needs
- Adhere to principles of radiation protection
- Demonstrate assertiveness and initiative
- Display appropriate work ethic

By signing this document, I agree that I can and have the ability to meet each of the physical, intellectual and emotional requirements for the radiologic technology program.

Name: _____

Signature: _____ Date: _____