Faculty:

We have assembled a great team of faculty members who are ready to guide and empower you with the tools to succeed on your own. You must actively engage these resources in order for you to benefit from them. Don't wait until you are over your head with coursework—come and see us at the beginning of the term to establish contact and review concepts.

English (includes research papers, essays, and resumes)

All English Faculty Can be Accessed at (800) 726-2585, then dial the appropriate extension

- Kara Beary – Ottumwa campus

Please be advised that English faculty assess the effectiveness and soundness of papers with students present at the appointment, including English grammar conventions. They do not, however, proofread or fix papers for students. Unless the class is online, students MAY NOT drop off papers to be assessed, rather, they must either make an appointment or drop-in with paper in hand. Moreover, students must make appointments or drop-in with papers at least twenty-four hours before they are due.
