ADMINISTRATION UPDATE

What Have We Been Up To?

2020 was certainly a year for the history books. The COVID-19 pandemic has had an impact on every single one of us. While 2020 was certainly a challenging year, Indian Hills Community College and the Foundation were able to continue meeting the needs of our students. Instructors were asked to pivot quickly and move classes to an online format in a matter of days and they did so with dexterity and grace.

Even with the struggles of the past year, the Foundation managed to award more in scholarship dollars than in any previous year to more than 800 students. The mission of the Foundation has been to provide resources necessary to ensure student success and we will continue to do that, no matter the obstacles facing our student population.

This year, we saw the retirement of Dr. Marlene Sprouse and the inauguration of the 5th president of Indian Hills Community College, Dr. Matt Thompson. Dr. Thompson possesses a vision for the future of the college that will not only propel IHCC into the future but also address the needs of area employers and the local economy.

Indian Hills Community College Foundation will continue to address the needs of our communities. We have endured the struggles of this past year with the help of our donors. Our supporters continue to see the benefits of educating our citizens and we look forward to what 2021 has to offer.

Dr. Matt Thompson, President

ALUMNI PROFILE

A True Gentleman: Patrick Sellers

IHCC ALUMNUS IS A TRUE GENTLEMAN

IHCC alumnus Patrick Sellers is a firm believer that you should always dress to impress. Patrick, along with his business partner, Chris Hagger, started their own company, The True Gentleman Collection, to ensure that every man can afford to dress appropriately.

“My father is a Baptist minister and he was always a firm believer in dressing nicely. I wanted to create a line of silk ties that were affordable for every man,” Patrick said.

Patrick attended Indian Hills from 1990-1992 and then completed a bachelor’s degree at Columbia College in Columbia, MO. After working in business for a number of years, Patrick returned home to Freeport, IL, where he chose to run for public office. Patrick now serves as a supervisor of the Freeport Township.

The True Gentleman Collection offers a wide variety of silk ties for every occasion. Patrick has even partnered with Indian Hills to offer the Warrior Pride collection, available online.

Patrick still asks his father for advice when designing a new tie. “I run the designs by my dad but sometimes he thinks a design is too radical, but I keep it in the collection because I know some men will like it.”

The Indian Hills Community College Foundation has helped over 20,500 students since 1974.

We would not be able to impact the lives of so many students without the generous support of our donors. We want to thank each and every donor that has helped to create one of the largest community college foundation's in the state of Iowa.

In Memoriam

During the past year, many of our good friends and loyal supporters unfortunately passed away. They will be dearly missed by their friends at Indian Hills Community College.
