Section 2:

Many ISO events are held during the academic year, including (but not limited to): monthly meetings, parades, International Education Week events, International Food Fundraiser, and other fundraisers, and International Festival. On a separate sheet, please explain:

- How you plan to be an active member of this organization during the next academic year.

Your response should be typed and be at least 250 words.

Section 3:

By signing this application, you understand that if you are awarded an International Student Organization Scholarship for the academic year, in order to continue receiving this scholarship throughout the academic year, you must: 1) maintain your active participation in club meetings and have minimum club participation in the events listed below, and 2) enroll as a full-time student each term. At the discretion of the ISO Advisor(s), your scholarship can be revoked for being non-active and/or for not enrolling as a full-time student for a given term. This is a one-year scholarship and you must reapply each year. Scholarship amounts range from $600-$1,200. Please note that you cannot receive both a Foundation Scholarship and a Club Scholarship for the academic year. Incomplete and/or late applications will not be processed.

By applying for the ISO Scholarship for the academic year, I agree that I will actively participate in a minimum of the following events if I receive a scholarship:

- Minimum of six of the nine monthly ISO meetings (September – May)
- International Education Week Country Showcase and other events
- International Food Fundraisers
- International Festival
- Additional International Fundraisers
- In addition, at least one community events and at least one additional on-campus event

Please note that scholarship funds are limited, and by completing this application you are not guaranteed a scholarship award.
